From the Boy’s Camp...

What an unforgettable summer! We are thrilled to announce that this past summer was our BIGGEST one yet, filled with laughter, adventure, and memories that will last forever. And it was extra special because we celebrated a huge milestone—our 9th year!

For many of our campers and counselors, the 9th year holds great significance. Campers who have been with us for nine summers received their 9th Year Rings, a symbol of their dedication to the camp experience. I feel the coolest thing about this 9th year Ring group is they entered our brand-new gates for the very first time and helped create what C3 is today. We have all witnessed personal growth, new friendships, and countless memories together.

As we wrap up another amazing season, we’re already preparing for something even more exciting—2025, our 10th summer! It’s going to be a celebration unlike any other. We’re pulling out all the stops to make our 10th year a remarkable one. Some exciting additions include our brand-new Camper Spa, where our Camper Liberties will take place. This new feature is just one of the many surprises we have in store to make the next summer the best one yet! Speaking of dedication, I recently caught up with one of our counselors who has just enlisted in the Marine Corps Officer Candidate School (OCS). I had the privilege of talking to him on the phone on one of his liberties and he shared that all he can think about is camp and how he hopes to make it back here one day. He mentioned that so many things about camp remind him of the discipline and routines he’s experiencing now, thanks to the influence of Tex and his military background. From the Chow Hall to Liberties and even the way we focus on making beds each morning, many camp traditions have roots in Tex’s experiences. Of course, he laughed and added that while camp and the military share some similarities, there are plenty of differences too! It was a reminder of how much camp shapes us, no matter where life takes us. We are thrilled to see these familiar faces, along with many new ones, next summer. Here’s to making our 10th summer even more extraordinary!

Thank you for being part of our camp family. We can’t wait to see what 2025 has in store for all of us!
David

Stage 1 of the NEW Camper Spa, it is located right next to Riflery.

From the Girls Camp....

As the leaves start to change and the air grows crisp, we find ourselves reflecting on another incredible summer at Camp Longhorn C3! We celebrated our 85th Camp Longhorn summer and ninth summer at C3 with tons of laughter, learning and unforgettable moments. Here is a look back at some of the highlights!

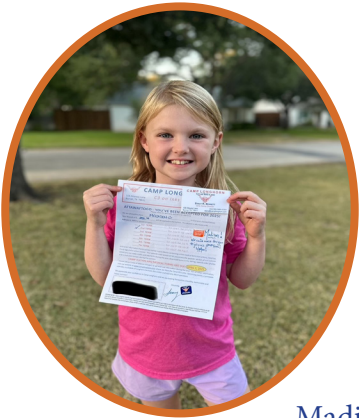

Unforgettable activities! From the moment campers arrived on Invasion Day, excitement filled the air! On day one, they are greeted with open arms by their cabinmates and incredible counselors. The first order of business is to take a dip in Inks Lake! Each day after that, they participated in ten activities, from conquering the climbing wall, paddling a kayak, perfecting their skills at archery, creating their own masterpiece at crafts, or participating in the world-famous BLOB, to name a few, there was never a lack of fun, time with cabin mates, and new adventures.

Special Events! Each night, campers look forward to our evening event! Campfire is a favorite, with camper and counselor skits performed each night, sing-a-longs, tacky night, year awards, campfire lighters, and smores under the stars! Church Mountain is one of the most special and memorable nightly events. The hike up the mountain, torches, songs, stories, and the hill country views imprint lifelong memories in the minds of every camper and staff member. Carnival and Dance Night is a highlight! This summer, the theme was “Going For Gold~Summer Olympics” and it was a blast! The King and Queen of Carnival were crowned, games were played, cotton candy consumed, and some might have even found the marriage booth!

Friendships! One of the most beautiful aspects of Camp Longhorn is the lifelong friendships formed. We saw campers of all ages come together, support one another, and build lasting connections. Cabinmates

Eva, Elleanor, & Alexander Arnaoutakis, new 1st termers

Madison Pike, new 2nd termer

Karsyn LaRocca, new 3rd termer formed a unique bond that they will carry with them for years to come. Camp provides a unique environment where kids can be their true selves. Away from the pressures of school, social media, campers can let their guard down. This authenticity encourages open communication and vulnerability, allowing friendships to blossom!

Milestones! Eighty-Five years ago, camp started with one camper and 16 counselors. Camp is what it is today because of Tex and Pat and the pioneers that came before us. This summer, we not only celebrated CLH’s 85th birthday but C3’s ninth summer! It was so special awarding rings to over 33 Chiefs, 20 Rangers, 37 girl counselors and 24 boy counselors! Being awarded the ninth-year ring is one of the most memorable and special experiences for any CLH camper or counselor.

Looking ahead! As we wrap up the summer and look towards Summer 2025, we are already excited about next year! We are about to load up the Camp suburbans and deliver over 300 annuals to our west Austin campers! Additionally, we will kick off the 2024-25 Carnival season on November 12th. We will be visiting over 50 cities all over America this year. We hope to see you for games, merits, prizes, the new camp movie, and FUN!! We have started placing new campers in open spots for Summer 2025. It is so exciting delivering the great news to new Camp families. We were able to capture a few of these behind-the-scenes moments when campers received their acceptance letters!

From the office...
Hello C3 Camper Families!!

Merit Questions are in full swing!!!
For those who do not know what Merit Questions are, they are 10 miscellaneous questions which your (prospective) camper can answer in order to earn “merits” throughout the year (SEP–MAY only). Submit their answers by email or mail & then they will receive a reward postcard IN THE MAIL, telling them how many merits they earned. Save all of these reward postcards (AND any other merits earned) so they can bring them to Camp in the summer, turn them in to their counselor & be able to use them to go shopping at the “World’s Greatest & Only Merit Store”. The Merit Questions can be found on our website under its own tab: https://www.camplonghorn.com/BULLETin/Entry/Merit_Question_Time

- Remember the rules:
- No late entries – due at end of the month (max 2 days into next month is my hard limit).
 - Meant for kids to work on with the help of siblings, parents, friends, etc., by using Internet, maps, books, etc.
 - Both placed AND waitlisted campers may submit answers. 1 answer sheet per child.
 - Each correct answer is worth 2 merits each for the possibility of earning 20 merits each month (that’s 180 merits you could possibly bring to Camp!).
 - Remember, there are 10 questions, so I need 10 answers. Missing/unanswered questions are counted wrong.

* * * * *

For this year’s Fall Bulletin, I am just re-running my piece that I contributed last Fall since I did not get many entries. I feel like this year there will be more participation!!!

Did you know. . . ?

As most of you might know, orange and blue are the colors of Camp Longhorn—orange for boys, blue for girls. I have come to cherish this color combination greatly and have several CLH outfits and even a pair of orange & blue shoes I wear on Opening Day or V-Day. But did you ever wonder how Camp Longhorn chose these colors? The answer given to me by the Robertson family was so simple: Blue came from Camp Bluebonnet—the name of the girls’ camp their first couple of years! Orange. . . because “Orange you glad you chose CLH?”! Well now you know, too!

I am really surprised as to how many items are orange and blue. Here are just a few examples:

CONTEST OPPORTUNITY: Here is a way to earn 10 MERITS from now until the Spring C3 Bulletin comes out, which is usually at the end of March. If you’re out and about at an event or shopping at a store or eating at a restaurant, etc. and you see something that is predominantly orange and blue, take a picture of it and send it in to me. I will give you 2 extra merits if you’re in the picture, too.

- RULES:
- You cannot send in something you copied off the Internet. It has to be something you see while out & about.
 - ONE ENTRY per camper please
 - No pictures of Camp Longhorn merchandise because I already know those items are orange and blue.
 - Deadline: March 1, 2025

E-mail your entries to me: cecilia@camplonghorn.com and then I will mail you your merit reward postcard. I hope I receive a ton of entries that I can post in the Spring C3 Bulletin!

ATTAWAYTOGO!!!
Big hug to you all!
Cecilia
